

CELTIC MUSIC CONCERT

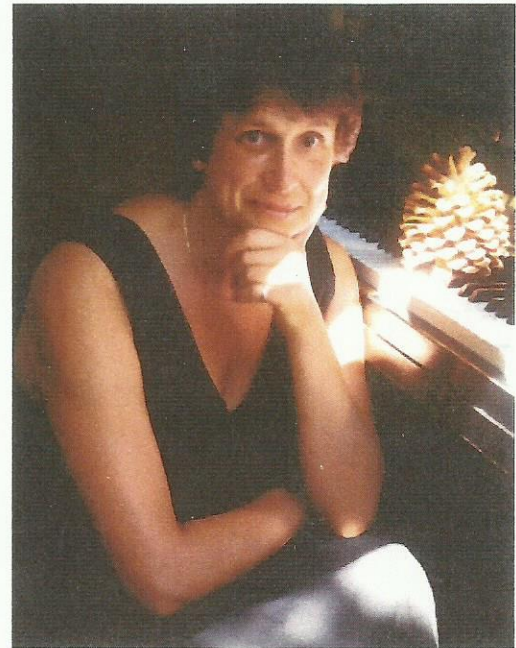

Presented by Royal Scottish Country Dance Society
Central Iowa Branch

FRIDAY April 28, 2017 8:00pm

LAURA RISK

SUSIE PETROV

LAURA RISK: Internationally known for her Celtic music, Laura specializes in the Celtic music of Scotland, Quebec and Cape Breton. Montreal based, Laura has a driving style that will warm your soul and get your toes tapping. Frequently heard on "Thistle and Shamrock", she has taught and played with Alasdair Frasier and at Wellesley College, to name a few. She is a solo performer and recording artist as well as a member of many other bands and ensembles, including "Les Joueurs de Bon Accord" in Montreal and others around the world. We are very happy to hear her again in Iowa!!

SUSIE PETROV: Susie is the heartbeat of many bands and ensembles playing Scottish and Celtic music including "Local Hero", "A Parcel of Rogues" and many others. She is frequently asked to play in Scotland with musicians such as piper, Dougie Pincock. She has been the invited pianist for the Glenfiddich Scottish Fiddle competition at Blair Castle in Scotland. We have enjoyed her energetic music many times in Central Iowa and are happy to have her back!

A Concert not to be missed!!!!
