Our Musicians!

Catherine Miller, an Iowa native, is a classically trained violinist who started fiddling with the Barn Owl Band and Cecil's Harp in Ames, Iowa. She now lives in Boston and plays for English, Scottish, and contra dances in New England and around the country. In the summer, she is a regular at Pinewoods Camp in Plymouth, MA. She has wowed dancers at RSCDS Camps and at CDSS English & American Weeks at Pinewoods where she has been featured with Dave Wiesler, pianist. When she's not playing for classes and evening dances, Catherine can often be found in the woods hunting for blackberries. She is a member of two RSCDS bands, (the Sharpies and Saucy Bess), Dusty Miller, an ECD band, and Jump Start, a contra dance band. She is the featured fiddler on the recently released Saucy Bess CD, "The Piper's Weir", which has some amazing Scottish music. You won't want to miss her great driving fiddling. We are very pleased to welcome Catherine back to our ball!

Debbie Jackson: Debbie is a multi-instrumentalist from Michigan and began her musical career many years ago as a songwriter, folksinger and bass player. She is now best known for her piano work - she plays at English and Scottish Balls around the US and many of her English compositions have been choreographed and recorded. She also plays for contras, swing dancing, waltzing and blues and Latin, and international. She has performed in Denmark, Germany, and India, and on Ukrainian National Radio and at Folk Festivals in the Slovak Republic. Debbie loves leading community sings and has also taught songwriting sessions. She has recorded 2 CD's with her English band, Childgrove, and her solo CD "Inner Spaces" is an interpretive journey of some of her favorite tunes. She is a music collaborator-at-heart and loves traveling to new communities to share music and dance. We are pleased to welcome her to the RSCDS Central Iowa Ball!

We are very pleased to have Catherine and Debbie as our guest musicians for our 28th Ball, May the Fourth be with Ye!
